HOW TO USE CITI CREDIT CARD

Citi Credit Card is accepted throughout Thailand and more than 200 countries around the world or the places that have Mastercard® or/and Visa logo. Simple steps of using Citi Credit Card are as follow:

- At the merchant cashier or the payment website/application, present your Citi Credit Card, scan Credit Card payment QR through Citi Mobile® App, or add/activate Citi Credit Card in payment mode of supporting website/website.
- Check the accuracy of both date and total sales amount at the bottom of the sales slip or on payment screens before signing the slip/proceeding the payment.

FOR CARD PRESENCE TRANSACTION

- Collect your Citi Credit Card from the cashier, along with a copy of the sales slip for your record.
 - Make sure you receive the correct card before accepting both the card and a copy of the sales slip. It is possible that the cashier gives you the card of another shopper by mistake.
 - Do not sign your name on a blank sales slip.

Remark: The Bank reserves the right to change the services/benefits offered to the card member in written.

MAXIMUM CREDIT LINE UP TO 5 TIMES

The Bank offers a maximum credit line up to 5 times of your monthly income. As a Citi Credit Card member, your credit line will be determined according to your salary, your financial history, as well as other supporting documents requested with your application.

The given credit line entitles you to obtain cash advance from any The Bank counter or any local banks' ATM and make payment for goods and services.

The available credit amount will be reduced by both the unpaid balance and the new charges made to the account for which the card member has not yet received a bank statement.

Remark: For available credit line calculation, please refer to Terms and Conditions of Using Citi Credit Card.

CASH ADVANCE UP TO 100% OF YOUR CREDIT LINE

With a Citi Credit Card, you may conveniently obtain a cash advance up to 100% of your credit line, depending on your financial history. Cash advance and total card spending must not exceed your available credit line at the time. You can withdraw cash advance at the following locations:

- Bank counters in over 200 countries that issue Mastercard® or Visa
- The Bank counter
- ATMs around the world with the following logos: ATM Pool, Mastercard® and Cirrus, VISA, PLUS. Maximum withdrawal per transaction is dependent on the individual ATM machine used and your remaining credit line.

The Bank will charge a cash advance fee for every transaction. Interest will be charged starting from the date of cash advance withdrawal to the date when the withdrawn amount is fully paid regardless of full or partial payments.

Remarks: For the interest on cash advance and cash advance fee calculation, please refer to Terms and Conditions of Using Citi Credit Card

THE REVOLVING CREDIT

Citi Credit Card offers you the financial flexibility of choosing between making full or partial payments.

You can choose to pay your outstanding balance in full within the payment due date, which will reduce your outstanding balance to zero. After the full payment is received, if there are no further transactions before your next billing cycle, your available credit line for that month will be restored to your present credit line.

In addition, you can choose to make a partial payment at minimum payment due* displayed on the monthly statement.

The interest from your spending on Citi Credit Card will be calculated from the outstanding balance of previous statement plus the spending of current statement in which they are calculated from the posting date (Date that The Bank has settled the purchase amount done by your Credit Card at the merchant outlet) to the date of payment. The interest rate will be calculated based on The Bank's interest structure which is in accordance with the law.

With Citi Mobile® App, you can view your account details and manage your personal finances at your fingertips anywhere, anytime. For further clarification about revolving credit and minimum payment, please contact CitiPhone Banking.

Remarks: *Minimum monthly repayment of each cycle means the minimum amount that has to be paid to The Bank in each cycle for your outstanding balance, which is calculated by

- 8% of total outstanding balance as of that relevant statement cycle date OR
- 1% of outstanding Spending Amount (Spending Amount means retail and cash advance transactions, including over limit amount) + 100% of interest and fees charged on the monthly statement + Transactions from PayLite, PayLite Conversion on phone/ online, or Cash Advance on phone/online programs, that require to be paid in full amount displayed on the monthly statement whichever higher

Remarks: • The payment of the Minimum monthly repayment shall be subject to the payment hierarchy stipulated by The Bank. • In the case where the cardholder has an outstanding amount past-due in his/her Credit Card account, that amount must be paid in addition to the Minimum monthly repayment in full. • Please settle the overlimit amount in addition to the total minimum payment due amount through any of your Citi Credit Cards to continue using the card. The overlimit amount is combined from all Citi Credit Cards. • This minimum payment due calculation will be effective from 1 August 2021 onwards

Remarks: • In case of any payments default, whether in whole or in part, The Bank is eligible to charge interest during the period of payment default, at the rate as deemed appropriate by The Bank, which shall not exceed the maximum interest rate chargeable under applicable laws. In case that your outstanding balance exceeds THB 1,000 and this Citi Credit Card agreement is still remain valid, then collection fee will be charged at THB 50 for the first cycle which outstanding balance remains unpaid. In case that the outstanding balance remains unpaid for more than one cycle, you will be charged the collection fee at THB 100 for each of the following cycle(s).

GRACE PERIOD OF UP TO 55 DAYS

Citi Credit Card members are entitled to a 45-day interest-free period when paying an outstanding balance in full. This 45-day period is calculated starting from your cycle cut-off date.

In case a card member pays at the minimum amount, or makes a partial payment, the card member is entitled to the maximum 55-day interest-free period. This 55-day period is calculated starting from your cycle cut-off date.

Remark: Payment cycle calculation can be found in the "Terms and Conditions of using Citi Credit Card"
